CENTER FOR SPIRITUAL LIVING PLANS PRAYER SERVICE FOR EGYPT TO TAKE PLACE FEB. 6 Meditation, music planned for Sunday afternoon event

SEATTLE — The Center for Spiritual Living will host a special additional service Feb. 6 to support the people of Egypt. Over 70 congregants and center Senior Minister Rev. Kathianne Lewis have a trip planned to the Egypt starting Feb. 11.

The “Prayers for Egypt” event will take place at 2 p.m. in the 1,100-seat Celebration Hall at the center, 5801 Sand Point Way NE, Seattle. The service is free and open to the public.

The center and Lewis have long-standing connections with Egypt and spiritual ties to the region. Lewis has led four previous trips to Egypt, where congregants and friends of the center visit sites of spiritual significance and learn about the country’s religious and cultural contributions to the world.

The service and the trips are in keeping with the center’s Science of Mind philosophy and emphasis on the oneness that unifies all people and the perfection that underlies all situations and temporal events. CSL Seattle routinely hosts speakers and events representing all of the world’s religions and spiritual traditions, and believes and teaches that all faith practices serve and support people and so are deserving of equal respect.

“We trust in the power of prayer. We believe in the Divine Good within all people. We are prayerfully holding peace and perfect resolution of the current unrest with and for all Egyptians – all of Egypt’s leaders and all of Egypt’s people.” Rev. Lewis said.

Guest musicians who will take part in the Sunday afternoon service include Garnett Hundley and Beverly Daugherty, Gina Sala and Stefan Mitchell. Participants in the planned upcoming trip have been invited to attend.
